EXTRACT FROM THE WILL OF EDMOND DE GONCOURT

[TRANSLATED]

¶ My wish is that my Drawings, my Prints, my Curiosities, my Books—in a word these things of art which have been the joy of my life—shall not be consigned to the cold tomb of a museum, and subjected to the stupid glance of the careless passer-by; but I require that they shall all be dispersed under the hammer of the Auctioneer, so that the pleasure which the acquiring of each one of them has given me shall be given again, in each case, to some inheritor of my own tastes.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A Proclamation.

Whereas, on the twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, a proclamation was issued by the President of the United States, containing, among other things, the following, to wit:

"That on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward, and forever, free; and the Executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any efforts they may make for their actual freedom.

"That the Executive will, on the first day of January aforesaid, by proclamation, designate the States and parts of States, if any, in which the people thereof, respectively, shall then be in rebellion against the United States; and the fact that any State, or the people thereof, shall on that day be in good faith represented in the Congress of the United States, by members chosen thereto at elections wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be deemed conclusive evidence that such State, and the people thereof, are not then in rebellion against the United States."

Now, therefore, I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, by virtue of the power in me vested as commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, in time of actual armed rebellion against the authority and government of the United States, and as a fit and necessary war measure for suppressing said rebellion, do, on this first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in accordance with my purpose so to do, publicly proclaimed for the full period of one hundred days from the day first above mentioned, order and designate as the States and parts of States wherein the people thereof, respectively, are this day in rebellion against the United States, the following, to wit: ARKANSAS, TEXAS, LOUISIANA, (except the Parishes of St. Bernard, Plaquemines, Jefferson, St. John, St. Charles, St. James, Ascension, Assumption, Terre Bonne, Lafourche, St. Mary, St. Martin, and Orleans, including the City of New Orleans,) MISSISSIPPI, ALABAMA, FLORIDA, GEORGIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, NORTH CAROLINA, AND VIRGINIA, (except the forty-eight counties designated as West Virginia, and also the counties of Berkeley, Accomac, Northampton, Elizabeth City, York, Princess Ann, and Norfolk, including the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth,) and which excepted parts are for the present left precisely as if this proclamation were not issued.

And by virtue of the power and for the purpose aforesaid, I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves within said designated States and parts of States are and henceforward shall be free; and that the Executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of said persons.

And I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared to be free to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defence; and I recommend to them that, in all cases when allowed, they labor faithfully for reasonable wages.

And I further declare and make known that such persons, of suitable condition, will be received into the armed service of the United States, to garrison forts, positions, stations, and other places, and to man vessels of all sorts in said service.

And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice warranted by the Constitution upon military necessity, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind and the gracious favor of Almighty God.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of WASHINGTON this first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-seventh.

Conditions of Sale.

1. All bids to be per Lot as numbered in the Catalogue.
2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final.
3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.
4. Goods bought to be removed at the close of each sale. If not so removed they will be at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.
5. Terms Cash. If accounts are not paid at the conclusion of each sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, this Company reserves the right to recatalogue the goods for immediate sale without notice to the defaulting buyer, and all costs of such resale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such resale at its own option. Unsettled accounts are subject to interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.
6. All books are sold as catalogued, and are assumed to be in good second-hand condition. If material defects are found, not mentioned in the catalogue, the lot may be returned. Notice of such defects must be given promptly and the goods returned within ten days from the date of the sale. No exceptions will be made to this rule. Magazines and other periodicals, and all miscellaneous books arranged in parcels, are sold as they are without recourse.
7. Autograph Letters, Documents, Manuscripts and Bindings are sold as they are without recourse. The utmost care is taken to authenticate and correctly describe items of this character, but this Company will not be responsible for errors, omissions, or defects of any kind.
8. Bids. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

78. ATHENÆUM CLUB. Commemorative Proceedings of the Athenæum Club, on the Death of Abraham Lincoln. Portrait on Japan paper, engraved by Ritchie. Folio, half morocco. [N. Y. 1865]

* Large Paper copy, of which only 50 copies were issued. Extra-illustrated by the insertion of the Marshall portrait of Lincoln, folded to size; memorial card, black-bordered; carte-de visite photo. of Booth, and numerous contemporaneous newspaper clippings and illustrations. A very desirable item.

AUTOGRAPH DOCUMENTS AND LETTERS.

81. LINCOLN'S (ABRAHAM) SUM BOOK written when a school boy. Defective leaf containing examples in long division worked out by Lincoln, with autograph, "Abraham Lincoln's Book." Inlaid.

* On one side of the leaf are four lines, reading as follows:

*"Abraham Lincoln is my name
And with my pen I wrote the same,
I wrote in both haste and speed
And left it here for fools to read."*

The heading of the leaf is dated 1824. Lincoln was then fifteen years of age, and the family was living in the backwoods. As is well known, he had very little schooling and did most of his studying at home and this leaf is from an exercise book in which he practised his examples. While part of the leaf is missing this still remains one of the most interesting Lincoln souvenirs in existence. A few other such leaves are extant, but this is unique in that it contains the poem above quoted. There is also another inscription, "ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S BOOK," on the same side of the leaf as the poem, but it is rather faded.

Geo. D. Smith

82. LINCOLN'S (ABRAHAM) SUM BOOK. Another defective leaf containing examples in compound interest, worked out by Lincoln. Inlaid. 2 pp. folio.

* This leaf followed the foregoing item of long division and shows the studious disposition of the young Lincoln. These pages represent hard mental labor done at night after the daily toil, in 1822 to 1824.

A more personal or characteristic souvenir of Lincoln would be difficult to procure.

Geo. D. Smith

The seven items following, present a most unusual and interesting series of documents covering practically the entire professional life of Abraham Lincoln, from his admission to the Illinois Bar in 1836 to his nomination for President in 1860. With but two exceptions the documents are written entirely by Lincoln, and also the various firm signatures are in his hand. These include his First Partnership with John T. Stuart, his Second Partnership with Stephen T. Logan, and his Third and final Partnership, which developed into a life-long friendship, with William H. Herndon. These were the three well-known connections which Lincoln made during his period of legal practice, but the documents here offered disclose four additional associations which heretofore have escaped the attention of Lincoln's Biographers, namely: Ficklin and Lincoln, which firm signature was used while he was a partner of Stephen T. Logan; Harlan and Lincoln; Lincoln and Loman; and Goodrich and Lincoln.

Possibly these may have been only temporary affiliations, for a single action, or as in the case of Harlan and Lincoln, simply for the Court term. They nevertheless form a chain of connections which heretofore has never been welded together, and are of the highest historical interest and importance. Considering the temporary nature of several of the professional associations, this may be the only opportunity ever afforded to secure a complete series.

75- 83. STUART AND LINCOLN. A. D. S., 1 p. folio. Sangamon Circuit Court. February 2, 1838.

* Praecipe and Declaration in the case of Anderson, Bell and Co. vs. George and Frederick A. Patterson. Signed "Stuart and Lincoln." The document also contains the personal guarantee of Lincoln covering the costs of the case, signed "A. Lincoln." Order.

The entire document is in Lincoln's hand. Lincoln's First Partnership. Fine condition.

84. LOGAN AND LINCOLN. A. D. S., 2 pp. folio. Sangamon Circuit Court. March, 1845.

* Bill of Complaint in the case of John C. Harlan vs. William Renshaw and John D. Ferrill, on failure to pay a Promissory Note. Signed "Logan and Lincoln." Bill of C. Harlan

The entire document is in Lincoln's hand. Lincoln's Second Partnership.

A curious and interesting point in connection with this document is, that although it has been accepted by the Clerk of the Court and filed, yet it is incomplete in its preparation of the complaint, failing to state the time the note had to run, a space having been left by Lincoln to fill in this information. Apparently the document passed through all the Court hands without the omission being discovered. A VERY FINE PIECE.

115- 85. FICKLIN AND LINCOLN. D. S., 1 p. folio. Coles County Circuit Court. Oct. 25, 1842.

* The main portion of this Document is by Linder and Walker, Attorneys for the Defendant, in the case of Gurley vs. Craig. A statement in the instrument is one that the Plaintiff concurs in, hence the sentence: "And the Plaintiff doth the like. Ficklin and Lincoln," which follows, in Lincoln's hand.

Research has failed to disclose any partnership between Orlando B. Ficklin and Lincoln at this or any other date; in fact, at this time all authorities agree that Lincoln was a partner with Logan, which partnership was not severed until between 1843-1844, only to be resumed again shortly, as the preceding item will show. Apparently the only explanation which can be made of this strange firm signature is that for this case at least Logan was not interested with Lincoln, but that the latter was privileged to engage with Ficklin.

An interesting and desirable autograph which may be considered very rare.

90- 86. HARLAN AND LINCOLN. A. D. S., 1 p. 4to. Oct. 10, 1845.

* A Document in the case of John Huffman ad. Oliver Saller. In Trespass.

This signature may also be considered very rare, as this partnership was probably for the term of the Court only, hence very few signatures such as this are obtainable. No mention is made of this partnership by Lincoln Biographers. The Document is entirely in Lincoln's hand.

87. LINCOLN AND HERNDON. A. D. S., 2 pp. folio. August 25, 1852.

* Answer of Clinton May to a Bill in Chancery, Sangamon County Circuit Court.

85- This was Lincoln's Third Partnership, and out of it grew a friendship which lasted until Lincoln's assassination. The Document is entirely in Lincoln's hand, and is in splendid condition. A VERY DESIRABLE SPECIMEN.

88. LINCOLN AND LAMON. D. S., 3 pp. folio. Vermilion County Circuit Court, May, 1855. Lincoln's autograph "Lincoln & Lamon" in two places.

75- * Case of Sarah Motice, et als, vs. Samuel Motice, et als. Petition for Partition and Dower. Lincoln and Lamon were attorneys for the plaintiffs in this action, and the document is signed, "Lincoln and Lamon, their Sols," in Lincoln's hand. On the back of the instrument is written by Lincoln, "The clerk will please issue a Summons in Chancery for the Defendants in this case and oblige Lincoln and Lamon."

This is another of Lincoln's short-term partnerships, as there does not appear to be any record of this firm practising together for any length of time. Lamon in his "Life of Lincoln" makes no mention of any law connection with him.

89. GOODRICH AND LINCOLN. A. D. S., 1 p. folio. Oct. 9, 1855.

* The Replication of Nathaniel Sniffen to the Answer of Lemuel Harris. Holograph document of Lincoln. An exceedingly rare signature, in splendid condition.

85- Lincoln was never a partner with Goodrich in the sense that he was with Stuart, Logan, and Herndon. In fact, while Lincoln was approached by Goodrich with the view of forming such a business arrangement, he declined. Goodrich, one of the leaders of the Illinois Bar, joined with the others in testifying that Lincoln's bill for $5,000 against the Illinois Central R. R. was reasonable and just.

20- 90. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). D. S. in full "Abraham Lincoln," 4to, Washington, Apl. 14, 1862. J. J. Madigan

* Pardon Warrant for Jas. Van Elten.

19- 91. — D. S., Washington, Mch. 6, 1863; also signed by S. P. Chase, Secty. of the Treasury. J. J. Madigan

* Appointment of J. B. Halsted Revenue Collector at New York. Fine signature in full. "Abraham Lincoln."

15- 92. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). A. D., 1 p. folio; not dated.

* THE ENTIRE DOCUMENT OF 16 LINES IS IN THE HAND OF LINCOLN, with the exception of the signature of B. S. Edwards which appears at the end, and once in the body of the text. Apparently a very early holograph document, in all probability before 1845. Geo. D. Smith

29- 93. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). Bond given by E. D. Baker in a suit against J. Vincent Browne, filled out and signed by Lincoln for Baker, and with 7 lines at the foot in Lincoln's writing. 1 p. folio. April 30, 1849. F. W. Morris

* The portion in Lincoln's hand follows:

"The above bond having been executed in my name by A. Lincoln, without authority from me under seal to do so, I do hereby ratify and confirm his said act, and acknowledge said bond to be my deed for the purpose therein expressed to take effect from the date of said bond. Witness my hand and seal this 3d. day of September, A. D. 1849."

Edward D. Baker, Congressman from Illinois, had a National reputation as an orator, and as a jury advocate he was second to none in Illinois. He and Lincoln were pitted against each other in the courts term after term. He was killed at Ball's Bluff in 1861.

OF VERY GREAT INTEREST, Baker being one of Lincoln's closest friends and a political rival.

25- 94. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). D. S., 1 p. 4to (Springfield), Dec. 8, 1857. Between glass. Oak frame. R. J. Madigan

* Bill for Costs, in which Lincoln entered himself as security for costs in the case of S. C. Davis and Co., vs. Campbell and Hundley, in Chancery.

FINE SPECIMEN.

400 95. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). A. L. S., 1 p. small 4to. Springfield, April 30, 1859. With engraved portrait. The two framed, side by side.

*"T. J. Pickett, Esq. My dear Sir. Yours of the 13th is recieved [sic]. My engagements are such that I can not at any very early date, visit Rock Island to deliver a lecture, or for any other object. Yours Very truly, A. Lincoln."

2200 96. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). D. S., appointing Dr. R. C. Wood Visitor of the Government Hospital for the Insane; countersigned by Caleb C. Smith. Oblong 4to. July 1, 1861. R. J. Madigan

* FINE DOCUMENT SIGNED IN FULL "ABRAHAM LINCOLN."

97. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). D. S., Washington, July 2, 1862. 1 p. folio. Framed.

23-
* "I hereby authorize and direct the Secretary of State to affix the Seal of the United States to a Warrant for the Pardon of James Brayley," etc. Also framed in with the above. Ohio Union Presidential Ticket for 1864. FINE PIECE.

98. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). Three lines in the autograph of Lincoln, on card, which has been pasted on a sheet of paper containing autograph of Lincoln's son Tad, "Thomas Lincoln." This is authenticated by inscription and signature of James W. Somers.

* The three lines read:

"Tad wishes to see Gen. Meigs about getting cloth caps for the" — As stated by Carpenter in his "Six Months in the White House" Tad was interested in a regimental company, and it may have been for this company that he wanted to secure the caps.

LINCOLN'S COPY OF THE CONSTITUTION.

99. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). The Constitutional Text-Book: A Practical and familiar Exposition of the Constitution of the United States. By Furman Sheppard. 8vo, original half roan. Phila. 1863

220-
* At the end of the chapter containing Amendments to the Constitution has been written in Lincoln's hand:

"Article XIII.—If any citizen of the United States shall accept, claim, receive or retain any title of nobility or honor, or shall without the consent of Congress, accept or retain any present, pension, office or emolument of any kind whatever, from any Emperor, King, Prince or foreign power, such person shall cease to be a citizen of the United States, and SHALL be incapable of holding any office of profit or trust under them, or either of them."

In 1810 an amendment similar to the Article here written by Lincoln was proposed but was never accepted. If it had been approved it would have become the XIII Amendment, as here recorded.

In addition to the manuscript note, there are numerous pencil markings of passages throughout the volume.

100. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). A. N. S., on card, dated April 12, 1865.

* "Let this man be released on taking the oath of Dec. 8, 1863. A Lincoln."

An interesting relic of the martyred President, disclosing one of his kindnesses to a prisoner, and possibly the last pardon he ever signed, as the document was executed only two days prior to his assassination.

From the Dr. J. B. English collection, which was damaged by fire and water; this specimen shows a slight blurring of the ink caused by its contact with water.

160- 101. AUTOGRAPH ALBUM containing signatures of Abraham Lincoln, Andrew Johnson, Generals Grant, Meigs, Thomas, Hancock, Sheridan, Garfield, and Statesmen. 90 signatures in an oblong 12mo book, bound in contemporary morocco. T. J. Madison

W- * Into this family Dr. J. B. English evidently married, the entry being "J. B. English and E. C. H. DuVall was [sic] Married 31st. of October, 1831," and the entry of "Duval English," born Aug. 6th, 1832, is clearly a son from this union. His wife, also of the Herndon family, died Aug. 20, 1889, he surviving her nearly two years. Following the entries, on the reverse side of the page, is a facsimile of the rare Broadside "$100,000 Reward! The Murderer is still at Large," and on the following page is pasted a signature of A. Lincoln, cut from a letter, and beneath it, the Official Order covering the movement of the Lincoln Funeral train.

* A humorously satirical publication, issued soon after the close of the Civil War, in which those prominent in behalf of the negro are ridiculed. It gives what purports to be "Loyal nominations," headed by "Cæsar Guss," of Boston, for President, and ending with Horace Greeley, for Governor.

An illustration shows James Gordon Bennett surrounded by irate citizens who charge him with advocating secession. He replies he is willing to advocate anything that will pay.

Referring to Mrs. Surratt: "Now with regard to the woman Surratt . . . suppose her guilt was not quite proved. . . . Where so terrible, so horrible and so atrocious a crime as the murder of an Abolition President, the bare suspicion of guilt is fatal."

BROADSIDES.

190. LINCOLN (ABRAHAM). Attention! The People!! A. Lincoln, Esq'r., of Sangamon County, one of the Electoral Candidates, will Address the People This Evening!! At Early Candlelighting, at the Old Court Room (Riley's Building.) By request of Many Citizens. Thursday, April 9th, 1840. 1 p. 4to. [Alton, 1840]

210- * A LINCOLN BROADSIDE OF EXCESSIVE RARITY, AND IN ALL PROBABILITY, THE ONLY COPY EXTANT. Of extreme interest as showing the activity and interest of Lincoln in political matters at this early date. He was one of the electors on the Harrison and Tyler ticket from Sangamon, and it was in the campaign that the above advertised address was to be made. Under

Accompanying the broadside, is a portion of another poster of a meeting of the Tippecanoe Club of the City of Alton, which held its meeting in the same Hall that Lincoln was to occupy, thus identifying the place of his Address as at Alton.

IN EXCEPTIONALLY CRISP CONDITION.

100- 191. BROADSIDE. To the Friends of the National Road. 1 p. folio (upper corner slightly ragged). [Springfield, 1840]

* AN EXTREMELY RARE AND INTERESTING BROADSIDE of the Campaign of 1840, in which Van Buren is called the enemy of the National Road, and Harrison, the Friend of the West. Lincoln was an Elector from Sangamon on the Harrison and Tyler ticket and his name appears on the broadside three times as such. Under

ONE OF THE EARLIEST BROADSIDES KNOWN referring to Lincoln's political life. In crisp condition. Not in the Lambert collection, and unknown to Fish.

6- 192. BROADSIDE. Phunny Phellow. Great Fight for the Championship between the Southern Fillibuster and the Western Railsplitter. Large folio (a slight tear at the bottom has been repaired). Smith

* Very scarce. The greater portion of the broadside is taken up with caricatures of Lincoln and Davis, as Pugilists, with the White House and the Confederate Capitol behind the respective fighters. There is an amusing reply of Lincoln to H e G y's query in connection with the fight.

193. BROADSIDE. Old Abe Lincoln and his Abolition War! By Julien. Columbia! Liberty! Justice! Peace! Large folio. Framed. n. p., 1861

* Very scarce. A slanderous broadside against the President and the North.

24- "Of all the insane fools, idiots, and asses that ever disgraced any part of God's earth—you, and your supporters—your Union-savers of Western Virginia, carries off the palm.

"You and your supporters who have taken up arms against your own State to support old Abe Lincoln in his Abolition War—his old John Brown raid against the South, and his usurpations and tyranny, and schemes of death and hell—rapine, plunder, murder, piracy, are no Virginians."

194. BROADSIDE. By His Excellency Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States. A Proclamation for a Day of Humiliation, Fasting and Prayer. (Sept. 26, 1861), also Gov. Andrew's Proclamation of same, for Massachusetts. 4 pp. folio.

700- * Scarce. Proclamation of the first National observation of Thanksgiving.

195. BROADSIDE. Great Cry but Little Wool. Caricature portraits of Lincoln and his Cabinet. 1 p. 4to, half morocco. Balto. 1861

700- * Scarce. Lincoln is represented as an Indian Chief with an axe in his hand. The epithets applied to each member of the Cabinet are more forceful than elegant.

196. BROADSIDE. "Missouri Democrat:" Extra. President Lincoln's Inaugural. Delivered at Washington, March 4, 1861. Complete. 1 p. folio. [St. Louis, 1861]

13- * Very scarce. "The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battle field and patriot's grave to every loving hearth and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the Union, when again touched, as surely as they will be, the better angels of our nature." At the end of the address are two news items to fill out the page.

197. BROADSIDE. Johnny's Prayer. Copied from a Soldier's Letter. 1 p. 8vo. n. p.—n. d.

1- "Our Father! who art in Washington. Uncle Abra'm by name; Thy Victory's won; Thy will be done; In the South, as in the North; Give us this day, our daily rations, of Crackers and Pork, and forgive of Failures as we forgive our Quarter Masters, for their short rations; For thine is the power; the Soldier, and the Contraband; for the space of Three Years, Amen."

VERY SCARCE.

198. BROADSIDE. The President to General McClellan. Washington, April 9, 1862. 1 p. 4to (9¾ x 7¾ inches).

400- * An open letter addressed to Major-General McClellan and ending: "I beg to assure you that I have never written or spoken to you in greater kindness of feeling than now, nor with a fuller purpose to sustain you so far as in my most anxious judgment I consistently can. But you must act."

199. BROADSIDE. President Lincoln and General Grant on Peace and War. 1 p. 4to. n. p.—n. d. Smith

1- * SCARCE. Contains interview with President by J. T. Mills; Letter from General Grant, and Poem by Bayard Taylor, "On the Chicago Platform."

200. BROADSIDE. Proclamation ordering the Marriage of Blacks and Whites. 1 p. folio. 2 copies (one torn at top). 225

n. p.—n. d. 11
* "It is hereby ordered that, on and after this date, November 1st, 1867, the inhabitants of this county shall obey the new law sanctioning the marriage of blacks and whites. (Signed) General E. C. Candy."

A curious miscegenation broadside.

1- 201. BROADSIDE. Emancipation Proclamation. "By the President of the United States of America. A Proclamation." September 22, 1862. With printed signatures of Lincoln and Seward. Issued January 1, 1863. 1 p. folio. 11

2- 202. BROADSIDE. Emancipation Proclamation. State Department Circular to the Diplomatic and Consular Officers of United States in Foreign Countries, Sept. 22, 1862. 1 p., with copy of proclamation on pp. 2 and 3, having printed signatures of Lincoln and Seward. 4 pp. folio. 11

1- 203. BROADSIDE Proclamation for a Day of Public Thanksgiving and Praise. Signed, John A. Andrew. Oct. 1, 1863. 1 p. folio, size 20 x 26 inches. 11

* Fine copy.

1- 204. BROADSIDE. By the President of the United States. A Proclamation. The Emancipation Proclamation of Sept. 22, 1862, with the additional Proclamation of Jan. 1, 1863. 1 p. folio. [Wash. 1863] 11

* Scarce.

1- 205. BROADSIDE. "Taken on the Spot." "Kill Old Abraham the Tyrant and Elect the Little Ditcher," &c. 15 stanzas, enclosed in decorative border. Size, 11¾ by 6¾ inches. Printed on yellow paper. [Ilion, N. Y. 1864] 11

* A rhymed account of a Copperhead meeting in Ilion, addressed by A. H. Tremain and others.

1- 206. BROADSIDE. The Election of Nov. 8, 1864. In Two Parts. By William Sanders. 1 p. 4to. Framed. 11

* A little known Broadside. Not in the Lambert collection. Begins: "Hurrah for Father Abraham—a loyal man is he." Part second, treats of the methods of the Copperheads and their defeat. IN FINE CONDITION.

1- 207. BROADSIDE. "Who is Responsible for the War? Who Accountable for its Horrors and Desolations? Extracts from the Speech by Alexander H. Stephens" denouncing Secession. "Who Commenced the War?" With a list of "Remarkable Events" which occurred during the Presidency of Mr. Buchanan. "It is simply ridiculous to say that he [Mr. Lincoln] commenced the War," &c. 9¼ by 11½ inches (slightly stained on 2 margins). [N. Y. 1864] 11

208. BROADSIDE. Address of the Union and Emancipation Society, Manchester to His Excellency Abraham Lincoln on his re-election to the Presidency, November 8, 1864. Folio. Framed.

* Very Fine Copy. Scarce. Not in the Lambert collection.

209. BROADSIDE. "Facts for Men who do their own Thinking." With map showing ground lost by the Rebels. 2 pp. folio (slight tear on one side, and margin a little ragged). N. Y.: American News Co. [1864]

* A strong pro-Lincoln broadside issued during the second Presidential campaign. SCARCE.

210. BROADSIDE. The People's New Ten Commandments, from the Book of John, the Pilgrim, Chap. XII. By David the scribe. 1 p. folio. Brooklyn [1864]

* A scarce broadside of the second Lincoln campaign, written in scriptural style. Published by D. S. Holmes, Brooklyn.

211. BROADSIDE. President Lincoln and General Grant on Peace and War. Interview with the President. Letter of General Grant. (12 x 9½ inches.) Bound in 1 vol. 8vo, full morocco. Scarce. n. p. [1864]

* Contains Bayard Taylor's poem "On the Chicago Surrender."

212. BROADSIDE. Brown (James Franklin). A Poem, Our Country. 1 p. 4to. n. p.—n. d.

* Scarce. The last stanza reads:

"We know that 'Lincoln' is the man,
Who will for truth and freedom stand,
And give this nation all their rights,
So may they cease their arms to fight."

213. BROADSIDE. "With Malice towards none and Charity for all." Portrait of Lincoln in wreath. 1 p. 4to. n. p.—n. d.

* AN UNUSUAL BROADSIDE. Below the portrait are various quotations from Furman Sheppard and others, of which these are two by the former:

"The memory of Abraham Lincoln will go down to posterity more execrated than that of the inmates of the Eastern Penitentiary."

"I would have stopped the parade just as Mayor Hall did."

214. BROADSIDE. Bill-Board Poster. The Election. An actual Incident. 1 p. large folio (broken in folds).

* Cut of two men and a Soldier at a Bar:

Republican Deacon—"There is no end of the matter, but the extermination of Slavery or the White Race."

Soldier—"D—n you; why don't you and your coward son, whom you bought off when he was drafted, go to the War. I Voted for Lincoln! When he called, I went to defend the Constitution and the Union. Now I vote for McClellan!! Vote for Lincoln and you vote yourself an Abolition Conscript within Four Years."

EXCEEDINGLY SCARCE, and a good specimen of the political campaign broadsides of 1864.

215. BROADSIDE. Abraham Lincoln. 1 p. oblong 4to. n. p.—n. d. Smith

200-
"If the Government contracted a Debt with a Certain Amount of Money in Circulation, and then contracted the Money Volume before the Debt was Paid, it is the Most Heinous Crime that a Government could Commit against a People."*
VERY SCARCE.

216. BROADSIDE. The Original Lincoln Cabin. Circular advertising the Log Cabin originally built by John Hanks, Thomas Lincoln, and Abraham Lincoln, which was on Exhibition on the Parade Ground, Boston Common, in 1865. 8vo, mounted (stained and has several holes, slightly affecting text). U

* Extremely scarce.

The Cabin thus exhibited, was originally built in Macon Co., Ill., in 1830, and the Broadside contains a letter from Gov. Oglesby authenticating it as the one Lincoln assisted in building.

47-
217. BROADSIDE. War Department, Washington, April 20th, 1865. $100,000 Reward! The Murderer of our late beloved President, Abraham Lincoln, is still at large. $50,000 will be paid by this Department for his apprehension, in addition to any reward offered by Municipal Authorities or State Executives. $25,000 reward will be paid for the apprehension of John H. Surratt, one of Booth's accomplices, and $25,000 reward for Daniel C. Harrold, etc., with descriptions of Booth, Surratt, and Harrold. Signed, Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War. Size, 18½ x 22½. (Worn in folds.) B. de C. Nelson

* VERY RARE. Another broadside of similar character, but measuring only 18x12 inches, sold in the French sale in 1901 for $80. The Lambert copy, measuring only 12x23 inches, fetched $75.

218. BROADSIDE. President Lincoln's Farewell Address to his Old Neighbors, Springfield, February 12, 1861. In black border. Folio, 14 x 19 inches. Lincolne

396. EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION. Signed by Abraham Lincoln and William H. Seward, whose signatures are attested by John G. Nicolay, secretary to the President. Printed on parchment paper. Size 17½ x 22 inches.

Wash. 1863

* One of 50 authorized copies of the original proclamation, signed by the President and Secretary of State, and John G. Nicolay. Hart's Bibliography gives the following notice: "At the time of the Philadelphia Sanitary Fair, in June, 1864, twenty copies of this proclamation were beautifully printed on parchment paper, and signed, at the request of two gentlemen prominently connected with the movement, by the President and Mr. Seward, which signatures were afterwards attested as genuine by Mr. Lincoln's private secretary, Col. John G. Nicolay." The two gentlemen here referred to, were Charles Godfrey Leland and George H. Boker. Mr. Leland in his "Memoirs," writes: "Because I had so earnestly advocated Emancipation as a war measure when even the most fiery and advanced Abolition papers, such as the Tribune, were holding back and shouting pas trop de zale—and as it proved wisely, by advocating it publicly—merely as a war measure—the President, at the request of George H. Boker, actually signed for me fifty duplicate very handsome copies of the Proclamation on parchment paper, to every one of which Mr. Seward also added his signature. One of these copies is now hanging up in the British Museum as my gift. . . . The copies I presented to the Sanitary Fair to be sold for its benefit, but there was not much demand for them; what were left over, I divided with George Boker." Vol. II. pp. 206.

* "A late London paper published about two days since announcing that Mrs. Lincoln, the widow of President Lincoln, was soon to be married to the Daden Count—with an unpronounceable name that I could not attempt to remember. The same evil spirit . . . is evident again at work and in the most malignant form too—probably anticipating that by this time Congress might be turning their attention to my sad and unfortunate case . . . In my indignation—last evening, if means had allowed I would have sent a telegram to our good friend Col. Forney that 'Mrs. Lincoln was unacquainted with such a person.'"

* A most interesting letter regarding his brother "Tad."
" Poor Tad was a good boy and extraordinarily affectionate and firm in his friendships. After you knew him he studied diligently and overcame the defect in his speech He was only eighteen when he died but he was so manly and self reliant that I had the greatest hopes for his future. These were cut off by his death after a torturing illness, he not being able to recline, but sitting for six weeks in the chair from which he was taken, dead. Such suffering I never saw, but it was all borne with marvellous fortitude."

876. NEWMAN (FRANCIS W.). A. L. S., 4 pages, 8vo, London, May 25, 1864.

* A long, important letter, mainly relating to Lincoln's merits and demerits, and the War. The writer was at one time an eloquent eulogist of Pres. Lincoln (see his Lecture on Lincoln, Fish, 689).

"... I had explained away in detail one point after another in which your President was not up to the mark of wisdom, & hoped that if he was slow he was sure; & that he would keep the two sides of the North in union better than if he were quicker of perception; & thus on the whole it might not be the worse. But for about two months I have found the evidence gather round me and facts press on me beyond power of resisting... Unless all his shortcomings are solemnly disowned by the people & by Congress, I now make sure that you will have lingering civil war for twenty years, with constant need of a Federal military occupation of this and that 'reconstructed' state. And I do not see how any adequate protest and reversal is possible, if you re-elect Mr. Lincoln."

Chap. 6 ends, after relating the Surrender of Lee, with: "A wild, unearthly shriek came rushing o'er the troubled land just then like frantic cry of a drowning child at sea. The nation's heart was sick and faint. O! soul, remorseless Demon, clad in human garb! When peace and gladness beckoned and the people saw the end at hand, thy deadly ball must pierce that noble brain which then was framing amnesty for all, and send uncalled to Heaven best of Earth. The President is gone,—murdered,—dead!"

LINCOLN RELICS.

1039. LINCOLN-BROONER RIFLE owned jointly by Abraham Lincoln and Henry Brooner some time in the late 1820's during their residence in Spencer County, Ind. The gun was originally a flint lock but was later fitted for percussion caps. The barrel octagonal, 37 inches long. Stock of hickory made by Samuel Brooner, the second owner of the gun, who replaced the original in 1880. All the other parts are original. Length 53 inches. Geo. D. Smith

265- * Lincoln and Brooner walked from Spencer County to Vincennes and purchased the gun in partnership for $15. It was used by them in deer hunting, etc., until 1830, when Lincoln moved to Illinois and sold his share to Henry Brooner. Henry Brooner presented it to his adopted son Samuel in 1880, who in turn sold it to J. T. Hobson, author of "Footprints of Abraham Lincoln." See the accompanying affidavits, and letters. It is illustrated in Hobson's book.

1040. POLITICAL DEBATES between Hon. Abraham Lincoln and Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, in the celebrated Campaign of 1858, in Illinois; including the preceding Speeches of each at Chicago, Springfield, etc., also, the two great Speeches of Mr. Lincoln in Ohio in 1859. 8vo, original cloth. 11

Columbus, 1860

395- * With inscription on fly leaf. "J. H. Littlefield from A. Lincoln, April 25, 1860." Also, pasted inside fore cover is a pencil note in Lincoln's Autograph. "Springfield, Nov. 30, 1860. I will pay five dollars to whoever will loan that sum to the bearer, Mr. Littlefield. A. Lincoln." Very interesting particulars of Mr. Littlefield, who was a student in the Lincoln and Herndon law firm, will be found in the 3 vol. edition of Herndon's Life of Lincoln. Inserted is a printed ticket "J. H. Littlefield (Former Law Student of Abraham Lincoln) will deliver his Celebrated Lecture of Personal Recollections of Abraham Lincoln at Gallatin Hall, No. 423 Fulton street. Admit One." Geo. D. Smith

J. H. Littlefield's embroidered book mark also inserted.

A VALUABLE AND INTERESTING ITEM.

95- 1041. COMPILED LAWS of the State of Michigan. Compiled by Thomas M. Cooley. Vol. 1. Thick royal 8vo, original sheep (rubbed, one hinge partly cracked). Lansing, 1857

* One of Lincoln's law books, with autograph inscription in his hand on fly-leaf: "Lincoln & Herndon, Springfield, Ills." and the firm's initials, "L & H." on outside of front cover. Geo. D. Smith

50- 1042. INKSTAND from Lincoln's Law Office in Springfield, Ill. This is one of inkwells which were in daily use during Lincoln's twenty-six years of active work as a lawyer. It came from Miss Caroline Cromwell, of Madison, Ind., an ardent collector of Lincoln relics. Geo. D. Smith

* It is made of wood and still bears the label of the manufacturer, Silliman & Co., Conn. The gilt decoration on the sides can still be traced. Size, 2½ inches high, by ¾ in diameter. Geo. D. Smith

10- 1043. SILVER LOCKET. With a portrait of Lincoln and a piece of dried leaf. Monogram on the outside.

72- 1044. GOLD STUD. Four gold logs forming a square with the ends over-lapping and a small white stone mounted in the center. The whole mounted on a screw stem. Smith

* Said to have been presented to Lincoln. See Burton's note attached.

2- 1045. PORTION of the black broadcloth coat worn by President Lincoln the night he was Assassinated; Newspaper Clippings regarding the various Battles of the War, which were used by Lincoln, and presented by him to the Rev. Dr. Gurley at various times; Photograph of the Silk Hat Lincoln wore the night of his Assassination. 3 items. 11

* Accompanying the above items are affidavits from Mrs. Emma H. Gurley Adams, the daughter of Lincoln's Pastor, Dr. Gurley, authenticating them.

36- 1046. GOLD RING with black stone. On the inside is a secret trap enclosing a lock of hair. Engraved initials on inside as follows: "F. T. L.," "A. Lincoln." Smith

* See Burton's note attached.

2- 1047. SMALL LEATHER HAND BAG, with pocket attachment on side, and brass lock and clasps. Smith

* Card attached reads: "This hand bag was the original property of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, when they 'packed up' to start for Washington, she gave it to Miss Langford in Springfield. I got it direct from Miss L."

1- 1048. BEADED ORNAMENTAL FRINGE. Length, 14 inches. This fringe was suspended from a shelf in the Lincoln home in Springfield and was given by Mrs. Lincoln to Miss Langford, from whom it was acquired by Mr. Burton. 11

700- 1049. LACE COLLAR owned and worn in Springfield by Mrs. Lincoln, who on her departure for Washington in 1861, gave it to her friend Miss Langford, from whom it was acquired by Mr. Burton in 1908. R. W. Samuel

2- 1050. LINCOLN. Small piece (4 by 2 inches) of the cotton pillow slip on which Lincoln's head rested from the time of his removal from Ford's Theatre until his death. A few blood stains are still discernable on the cloth. The relic is attached to a letter from Thomas Proctor of Brooklyn, stating that he was present when Lincoln died and that he brought this away as a memento. In 4to, glazed frame. Smith

71- 1051. LOCK OF LINCOLN'S HAIR. Cut from his head by the embalmers, Drs. Brown and Alexander, and presented by them to Justus Choller, one of the guard in attendance at the White House. A lock of about 30 strands of the martyred President's hair, in a small stamped leather case. Brantner

* Accompanying the above is an 8 p. A. L. S. of Justus Choller to his mother and sister telling them of his procuring the lock of hair, and sending it to them to preserve: also all the correspondence of W. F. Barker, a nephew of Justus Choller, giving and verifying all the facts in regard to the lock of hair.

It appears from this correspondence that Justus Choller was in the Government Secret Service at the time of Lincoln's Assassination, and was chosen to attend at the embalming of the body. While at this duty he was given the hair which was cut from around the wound to afford access for dressing it for the funeral ceremonies.

810 1052. GAVEL with long handle, made from floor joist taken from the law office of Stuart and Lincoln.

11- 1053. GOLD WATCH KEY, with stone in end.

* From the Dr. J. B. English collection of Lincoln Relics. Geo. D. Smith

2- 1054. WALL PAPER. Piece of wall paper from Abraham Lincoln's bedroom in his Springfield home. Pasted on a small 4to board. In glazed frame. "

1055. BRASS THIMBLE, formerly belonging to Lincoln's mother.

42- * Accompanied by a letter from a former owner which reads "I this day disposed of a Thimble to Mrs. J. E. Burton which my Mother gave to me, which was given to her by John Hutchinson . . . who received it from Abraham Lincoln who presented it to him as a token of regard it being he said his own Mother's 'Nancy Hanks.'" "

1056. THREE gold-plated Umbrella Handles, and 1 cane handle of bone with silver mount.

2- * Said by the owner to have formerly been in possession of the Lincoln family. Engraved on the side of one of the handles is the inscription "A. Lincoln, 1860."

21- 1057. GOLD MOUNTED IVORY CANE HANDLE. The initials A. L. are on end of gold mount and on side is engraved "A. Lincoln, 1860." On the handle is scratched the name "E. S. Sackett."

33- 1058. CANE. The stick of hickory was cut by Mr. Burton on the old Lincoln farm at Hodgenville, Ky. The handle of ivory with an ornamental butt of silver was originally the handle of an umbrella owned by Lincoln, and came from the Dr. English collection. Length of cane 36 in.

* An inscription scratched on the ivory reads "A. Lincoln, Springfield, Ill., 1847."

37- 1059. WATCH with a fine miniature portrait of Lincoln in a panel on the front cover, and a similar panel on the back cover with engraved figures symbolic of peace and plenty. The covers are elaborately chased and engraved; 18 carat gold case, key-winding works by the American Watch Co. In a contemporary flush-lined box. ca. 1865

* This watch was probably made immediately after the death of Lincoln.
